A very warm Good Morning to one and all.

The academic year 2018-19 of Christ College, has been an outstanding and significant one with numerous curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities in a distinct manner. This makes me proud to present before you the Annual Report of the year 2018-2019 and it is my pleasure to brief it out, as we celebrate today the 5th College Day, Christolite 2019.

I am very happy to say that we are carrying out the vision and mission of St. Kuriakose Eligius Chavara, the founder of the CMI Congregation who was the pioneer in the field of education.

The prime motive of Christ College is to provide quality education with a well-disciplined academic system and unquestionable placements with attractive salaries along with excellent

Services to the people of high range in accordance to our motto "Light to enlighten"

God has abundantly generous in guiding us all through the years and showering us with lofty goals for educational enterprises.

In this holy and joyful occasion, I duly acknowledge the untiring efforts and incomparable services of my forefathers and the Superiors of St. Joseph's Province, Kottayam whose initiatives and innovations have played a pivotal role in the ~~future~~ nurture of this magnificent 'Christ College' and ~~recreated~~ moulded it as the Districts prime Arts and Science college for higher education in high range.

Our College

Christ College is co-ed institution started in the year 2014 in Darsana Arcade with 79 Students and 11 teaching staff. By the passing of each year, the optimism and grit of the dedicated forefathers, the college has risen from a thriving arcade to its present structure of Christ College.

Competently shouldered by fearless and priceless fathers of the CMV Congregation, with a team of deeply dedicated teaching and non-teaching staffs, supplemented by appreciative parents, the college has become a centre for education with par excellence at Puliyannala, in the district of Idukki.

From Dasara Arceffe to the epic building with the best of enviable infrastructure, from 79 students 632 students in different departments - such as dept. Commerce, Computer Application, Economics, English, Hindi, Malayalam, Management and tourism from 11 faculty members to 35 well experienced faculty members, along with 17 committed supporting non-teaching staff within a short span of 5 years. The growth the guides of Christ College are, thus, phenomenal and unique.

Academic Year 2018-19

This awesome academic year has given us immeasurable satisfactions and made us feel proud in countless ways. The students of Christ College are united under the title Christites, strongly exhibited keen interest in showcasing their innate talents and hidden potentials. Let me gleefully deliver you a short account of the various administrative and academic accomplishments and honours we had secured during the academic year 2018-2019.

We began the academic year 2018-19 on June 4th 2018 with a prayerful welcome, greeted all the students as a sacred duty and the academic year commenced with a Holy Mass and the bell of messiment

Conclusion

I would like to conclude my account of presenting the Annual Report with strong statements. The fragrance of our presence and growth is unique and undefinable in Idukki. It is the CMI zeal and passion. It is intended to last under God's benevolent gaze and grace. Well, we have been doing it together and we will continue to do it together, together with all and development for all.

It is the family support and spirit that motivates Christ College Campus. The comradeship, the spirit of sharing and caring and feeling of comfort, deep sense of security and psychological responsibility are inspired by the Charism of our founder and Guru St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara. which keeps our spirit alive and ticking. Before I draw the concluding words, I take this golden opportunity to thank the Almighty God for his unfailing presence and bountiful bliss showered on us all through the year, Months and Days of this Academic year, especially on me since I am a novice in the field of higher education.

I offer my profound gratitude to our consoational Superior Local Manager, the director, Former principal, the teachers and staff of the past and present without whose courage, commitment and competence Christ College could not have accomplished this.

I am deeply indebted to Rev. Fr. Jose Parekkattal CMI the director of the college for his noble guidance and companionship which is the source of my strength.

I render my heartfelt gratitude to the Chief Guest of the day, Rev. Fr. Sabu Kovelappattu CMI, the Councillor for Education and Communication media of the St. Joseph's Province Kottayam, who has come over here at our warm invitation despite of his hectic work schedule and he has graced this occasion with his esteemed presence.

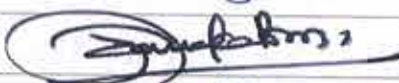

I also express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Sabu Varghese, Rev. Fr. Robins Kunnummalil CMI, Rev. Fr. Anoop Thiruthimattom CMI, Rev.

Fr. Santhosh Chempakathunkal CM
Mr. Josekutty Thakeliparam, Mrs.
Shylaja Sabi for their valuable presence.

The success of extra-curricular activities including the college day are based on the in-depth planning and immaculate implementation. The full credit goes to the members of IQAC wing, particularly Mr. Joshy M. Varghese and Mrs. Emilda K. Joseph.

My special appreciative thanks goes to the beloved parents, faculty members, office staff especially Mr. Madhusudhanan C.T.
