INTRODUCTION

The college chorus is a large mixed ensemble open to all students. This ensemble develops a love of choral music and singing among the members and shares that passion with audience. Singing in a chorus is fantastic creative outlet and a social activity. More than this, the positive effect of chorus singing on wellbeing is backed up by a number of scientific studies revealing plenty of health benefits.

For every institution a dedicated chorus group is very essential for any programmes. From the very beginning of Christ College, we are really blessed with an amazing chorus group. As and when we step on to year, new members are added to the group.
